3. What products and/or service does this business provide

This business provides _____

4. How does this business or person go the extra mile for you and the person you care for?

(Be specific, the more information we have the better. Use an extra sheet of paper if required. For example, "The extra service that this business provides is, at no extra cost, the staff always pick the car up from my home and deliver it back to me after it has been repaired, as they know it is difficult for me because of the responsibilities of my caring role. Repairs are always done at the cheapest possible price and on many occasions they have done some extra small repairs that are needed, at no extra cost. I have noticed that this company provides these extra services to other carers in my district. In regards to a great employee, just how has that person helped in anticipating the needs of the carer.)

Your Statement:

The extra service that this business and/or person provides is: _____
